ABOUT US

BODHANA EXPORT PVT. LTD.

– WHERE NATURE FINDS PURPOSE

We have been walking the natural wellness path for over 35 years. Since our official incorporation in 2018, we've carried forward a legacy that blends experience with a fresh perspective. Today, we're not just an exporter, we're a quiet force in the world of essential oils, rooted in India and trusted across the globe.

But behind all this, there is something deeper. A purpose that goes beyond product.

We're powered by a women-led workforce, not just on paper, but in spirit. Women from local communities, many of whom never thought they'd lead or earn, now bring their skill, heart, and precision to every bottle we create. When you hold one of our products, you are holding their hard work, their stories, and their growth.

At Bodhana, the process matters as much as the product. We blend ancient Indian practices with science, and we never cut corners. Every step, from how we source our ingredients to how we test and bottle them, reflects our belief in doing things the right way, not the fastest way.

SO WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT?

We stay real-

always 100% natural, cruelty-free, and kind to the Earth

2

We know our craft -

over three decades of learning, adapting, and listening

3

We believe in women -

not as buzzwords, but as the backbone of our business

4

We work with purpose -

every drop has a reason, every decision has a value

6

We are trusted by global brands, wellness experts, and thoughtful customers

We're not here to follow trends. We're here to nurture traditions, fuel transformation, and make sure the wellness world stays rooted in truth.

If you're a brand that values people over profit and purity over shortcuts, let's build something together. Because wellness starts with trust.

Our Promise

- ✦ We know it's not simple – sourcing, testing, sealing takes real work.
- ✦ Every drop of oil you hold is 100% natural.
- ✦ We source ethically, never cutting corners.
- ✦ Each bottle is handled with the care we'd give our own family.
- ✦ From seed to seal, we oversee every step.

Our Purity Pledge

- ✦ Purity isn't marketing – it's our baseline.
- ✦ No chemicals, no fillers, no shortcuts.
- ✦ Nature as it is: raw, messy, beautiful.
- ✦ Every batch is checked and re-checked.
- ✦ Your wellness is priceless, and we never compromise.

The Finest Quality in Every Divine Drop

You feel it the moment it touches your skin or scents the air. It's not just oil. It's tradition, care, and trust, packed into a single moment.

Experience the Power of Only Pure Essential Oils

No dilution. No synthetic additives. Just pure, potent oils with real therapeutic value. Wellness exactly as it was meant to be.

Built on Sustainability and Ethics

Every ingredient respects the land and the hands that gather it. Every batch reflects our care for people and the planet.
